

Qtips

1. Equity or inequity can manifest in every nook and cranny of your organization.
2. Inequity may not be as obvious as a first glance would indicate.
3. Equitable education is the result of intentional stakeholder actions.

*The truth is, no one of us can be free until everybody is free.
- Maya Angelou*

Reflect

1. Rate the level of equity you believe to be intentionally built into your whole program using 10 of the NSQ program standards A-F, H, and L-N. Use a 1-3 scale. (1=Lacking, 2=Emerging, 3=Abundant) If any important thoughts related to each category come to mind, jot them down along with your number.
2. Rate the level of equity you believe to be intentionally built into your program using the 8 NSQ teaching standards A-H. Use a 1-3 scale. (1=Lacking, 2=Emerging, 3=Abundant) If any important thoughts related to each category come to mind, jot them down along with your number.
3. Rate the level of equity you believe to be intentionally built into your program using the 7 NSQ teaching standards A-G. Use a 1-3 scale. (1=Lacking, 2=Emerging, 3=Abundant) If any important thoughts related to each category come to mind, jot them down along with your number.

Don't Forget

Questions

Q-it Up

*How will you use what you learned?
List your ideas.*