

QM Connect Conference 2017

From Papyrus Scrolls To Virtual Screens

Raj Mohan

Instructional Designer

Advanced Academic Programs

Johns Hopkins University

Come to listen and Share

This presentation emphasizes collaboration and discussion. Please come to listen as well as share your thoughts. We will leave the session with possibilities to explore about educational resources. You will be invited to participate in discussions.

Clinging to the Past

Open Educational Resources Evolve with the Changing Times

Standard 4.1

Evaluation procedures

Explore strategies for creating program wide OER

Standard 4.1

Annotation

Role of the SME

Digital materials

Websites

Courses with no textbook

Bibliographies

Do OER align with learning objectives?

Examples

Examples from my QM Certified course:

Alignment
Quality

Evaluating the Quality of OER

Discussion

Details will be shared during the presentation

Choice of OER Program Wide Adoption

Committee to set the Standards

Undergraduate

Graduate

Examples

Creating OER: Incentives to Faculty

Stipends

Time constraints

Steps involved

Creating OER

Digital Commons

Program-wide initiatives in progress

Examples

Education: Graduate Course
(Audience Participation)

Discussion Worksheets will be given at the presentation.

Role of the Libraries

Teaching Commons

JHU- recognizes the importance of OER
JHU library is taking active steps to promote them.

Examples

Organizations

List of Organizations and Resources will be given after the presentation

The Future is in the Clouds

Conclude

Sum up the main points

End with an Anecdote

Summits

Dec. 8, 2017: <http://www.usmd.edu/cai/advancing-postsecondary-student-success-through-oer-statewide-summit-open-educational-resources>

Citations

<http://www.floridahillnursery.com/foilage-n-flowers-c-15/cyperus-papyrus-plant-giganteus-live-plant-p-345>

Acknowledgments

I acknowledge the support of Pamela Wimbush, Director, IRC and Online Learning, JHU- AAP.
Mike Reese,
Sharon Morris, Director, Sheridan Libraries and Columbia, DC &
Montgomery
Patrick Fisher, Multimedia System Specialist, JHU- AAP.
The AAP ID Team