Sustaining Course Quality in Less Than 3 Meetings: Making Your Holistic Course Review Successful

Jen Sullivan

Ye Liu

Chris Norton

Jeff Behn

Session Objectives

At the end of our session, you will have opportunities to:

❑ Identify key challenges with incorporating student feedback into the course review process.

❑ Apply practices shared from the session to promote a collaborative culture for course improvement.
Agenda

- ❑ Boston University's online course development model

- ❑ Challenges

- ❑ Our strategies, practices, and stories

- ❑ Brainstorming, your stories, and your questions

Boston University Online Course Development Model

Course Review Challenges

If it ain't broke, don't fix it?

YOU CAN'T HIT SNOOZE
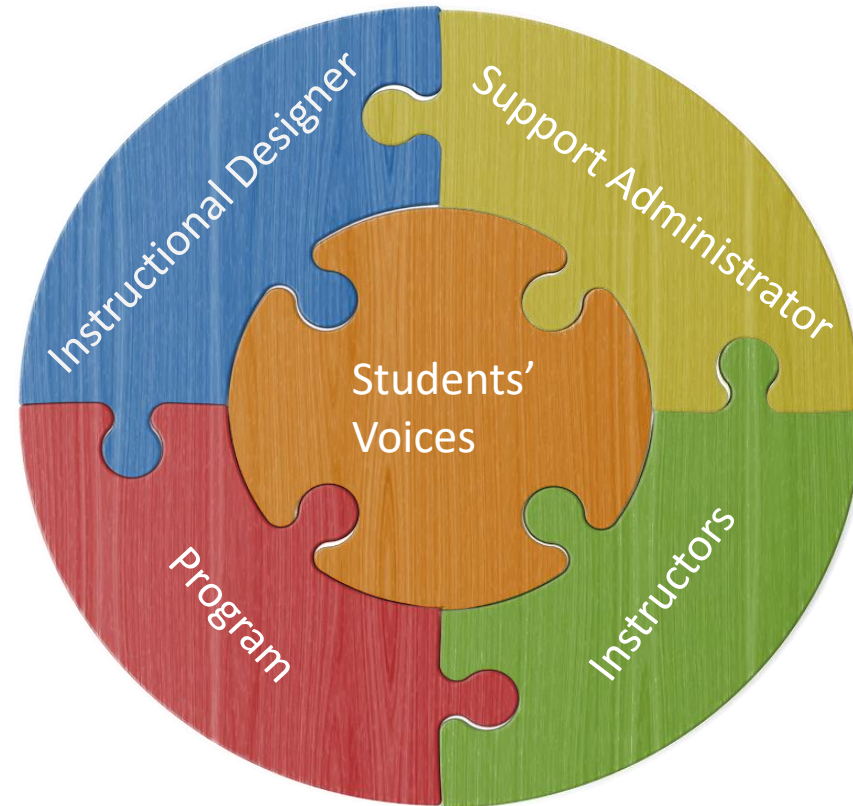

FOREVER

veronicaaguilar.co.uk

Strategies and Practices We Are Trying

❑ A culture of collaboration

➢ Building relationships, all roles

➢ Guidelines

Strategies and Practices We Are Trying

❑ Less than three meetings

➢ Internal team meeting

➢ Meet with academic program

➢ Implementation

Strategies and Practices We Are Trying

❑ Ongoing and sustainable

 ➢ <3 meetings per review

 ➢ 3 priorities (immediate, partial, future)

 ➢ 3 times/year with the program

❑ Applicable to all programs

Course Review War Stories

Midpoint course feedback

Immediate, partial, and future

Big impact

Let's Chat About Your ...

stories ?

challenges ?

Questions?

frustrations ?

wins ?
tips ?

Let's continue the conversation. Contact us:

Jennifer Sullivan

Lead Faculty and Student Support

jensul@bu.edu

Ye Liu

Lead Instructional Designer

liuye@bu.edu

Chris Norton

Instructional Designer

cbnorton@bu.edu

Jeff Behn

Faculty and Student Support

jeffbehn@bu.edu