

Mix it Up!

Using emerging technologies to provide professional development

For this poster session, you will:

- engage with each other and the presenters via discussion, polling, and other activities using technology;
- explore different technologies to provide faculty PD in blended, online, asynchronous, and synchronous formats;
- focus on “free” or “open source” technologies;
- participate in demonstrations how to “mix it up” for professional development.

Engagement for learning

Professional Development (PD) using

- Variety of formats, tools, topics
- Emerging technologies
- Free or “open source”

- Reusing resources
- Faculty presenters
- Recognition

Variety of formats

- Synchronous
- Asynchronous
- Face-to-face
- Online
- Hybrid
- Single sessions
- Year-long PD programs
- 3-week summer institute

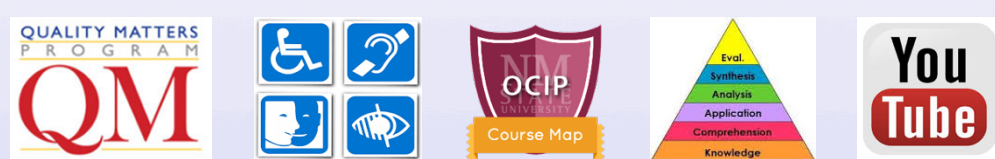

Choices, choices, choices!

- Let's Talk Online Teaching - 1 h
- Coffee & Course Design - 1 hr
- Webinars & Discussion - 45 mins
- Hybrid Workshops and Presentations (F-2-F & Online) - 2 hrs
- OCIP Resources Wiki – 24/7

Variety of topics

- Quality Matters
- Course Mapping
- Learning Objectives
- Accessible Videos
- Open Education Resources
- Backwards Design
- Making a Course Banner
- Creating Whiteboard Videos
- Making Content Accessible
- Create a Course Home Page
- Audio & Video in Your Online Course
- And many more!

Variety of tools

- Wiki
- Website
- Blog
- Twitter
- Facebook
- Canvas
- Adobe Connect
- Pinterest
- Skype

Maximum professional development impact

- Flexibility
- Ease of Use
- Open Access
- Self-selection
- Variety
- Engagement
- Recognition
- Comfort

Online Course Improvement Program
Instructional Innovation & Quality
ocip.nmsu.edu